COOK REACHED THE NORTH POLE

Smussen So Believes After Interviewing Natives.

ABSOLUTE PROOF IMPOSSIBLE

Details of the Dash as Related by the Eskimos So Closely Corroborate Dr. Cook's Narrative as to Be Conclusive—Subcommittee of Geographical Society Committee of Research Will Pass Upon Peary's Claim.

Copenhagen, Oct. 21.—Knud Rasmussen, half Eskimo and the confident natives of the frozen North, writes his wife in this city that, after interviews with natives, he has no doubt Dr. Cook reached the North Pole, he claimed.

While absolute proof is impossible, details of the dash related by natives closely corroborate Dr. Cook's narrative as to be conclusive.

Rasmussen declares that a man who underwent such hardships as Dr. Cook did could not be a fakir.

COMMANDER PEARY'S CLAIM

Will Be Passed Upon by National Geographical Society.

Washington, Oct. 21.—Commander Peary's claim that he reached the North Pole will be passed upon by a committee of the National Geographical Society of Washington.

His was decided at a meeting of the board of managers. In response to an invitation extended by the executive committee last week, Commander Peary sent on from his summer home in Maine what he deemed sufficient data to establish his claim. The board of managers decided to refer the whole matter to the society's regular standing committee of research and the chairman of the board then appointed the following committee to examine Peary's proofs: Rear Admiral Colby M. Chester, retired States navy, retired; O. H. Mann, superintendent of the United States coast and geodetic survey; Professor Henry Gannett, geologist of the United States geological survey, chairman.

A statement issued by Professor L. Moore, who presided at the meeting, it is made clear that only question upon which the committee will pass is whether Commander Peary reached the pole, and whether he will be an investigation of his claims of priority of discovery over Frederick A. Cook.

The experts designated by the society will hold their first meeting within a few days and inaugurate their investigation of the Peary data. They personally examine the notebooks, original observations made by Commander Peary on his march to the pole, and will see all papers brought by him from the frigid North.

The wide scope of the investigation renders it probable that the subcommittee will not report findings for several months.

While the meeting was in progress shortly after the submission of Peary data, a messenger brought telegram from the University of Copenhagen in reply to the society's request that that institution waive its claim to Dr. Cook's records. The telegram read:

"University regrets not able to comply with your request."

RAILROAD FIRE LOSS HEAVY

Twenty Tons of Hay and Sixteen Stacks of Wheat Burned.

Brookston, Minn., Oct. 21.—One of the most disastrous prairie fires which visited this section of the North-Western townships. A terrific wind ed the flames in their work of destruction and 800 tons of hay, all told, and stacks of wheat and 500 tons of oats on the Buffington farm, were destroyed. There were many other losses the details cannot be learned. The loss is estimated at $30,000 and there was practically no insurance.

Winnebagoes Will Get Annuity.

Washington, Oct. 21.—It has been announced at the Indian office that annuity payments to the Winnebagoes of Wisconsin must go over after the beginning of the next calendar year. A report has been given among the Indians that no annuity payments are to be made, because the payments are illegally made in the fall. The Indian agent, however, says this is an error.

ROBBERS HOLD UP THE POSSE

Capture Their Pursuers and Make Their Escape.

LOOTED A WISCONSIN BANK

Blew Open the Safes of the State Bank of Minocqua and Obtained Ten Thousand Dollars—Carry Their Plunder Away in Bags Before the Eyes of the Helpless Posse—May Again Be Surrounded.

Minocqua, Wis., Oct. 21.—The five masked bandits who robbed the State bank of Minocqua held up the pursuing sheriff's posse, which surrounded them in the depot at Hazelhurst, a few miles south of here, with rifles and escaped eastward toward a nearby junction.

The bandits started from Hazelhurst at 7:30 o'clock in the evening with the posse, swelled by about 100 villagers, half a mile in the rear. Since nothing has been heard of the posse, it is believed they have again surrounded the fugitives.

The bandits were located in Hazelhurst by the village marshal, who swore in deputies, surrounded the building and summoned the sheriff, who was beating the nearby woods, in which it was believed the desperadoes were hidden.

The sheriff approached the door of the depot and peered within. He saw men huddled in the corner of the room and knocked on the door. A rifle muzzle was shoved through the panel, while four other rifles, in answer to harsh commands issued within, were shoved through the windows to cover the balance of the surprised posse.

The door opened and the bandits came out one by one, masked. They marched the posse into the middle of the street and walked backwards down the street eastbound until they were swallowed up in the gloom. They fired a few shots over the heads of the huddled group.

The sheriff used telephones to inform farmers throughout the country through which it is believed the bandits are going. They are making towards a nearby railroad junction. They are unmounted and carried the plunder away in bags before the eyes of the helpless posse.

The loss sustained by the bank, which was blown open by several blasts of nitroglycerin, amounts to $10,000.

CANNON IS ON THE WARPATH

Speaker After the Scalps of the Congressional Insurgents.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—Joseph G. Cannon, speaker of the lower house of congress, is on the warpath. He is after the scalps of the congressional "insurgents." Against Cummins and La Follette he has turned their best weapon—eloquence. His speech at Elgin Tuesday was merely a sample of what is to come.

"Twenty members of the house and seven senators voted against the Republican tariff bill," said Mr. Cannon at the Union League club. "They are warring against the Republican majority in congress and against the Republican president who signed the bill."

"Either they are Republicans, or we are."

"If they are Republicans, I am not. If I am a Republican, they are not. That is my doctrine, and I am not afraid to preach it."

Explaining his Elgin speech, Mr. Cannon said he did not charge that Senator Cummins of Iowa had entered into a political compact with W. J. Bryan and would openly support the Democratic ticket.

"I said it was an open secret in Iowa that Cummins would oppose every member of congress who supported the Republican tariff bill," said the speaker. "Mr. Bryan has taken the same stand."

WILL MAKE REPLY TO CANNON

Senator Cummins Will Speak Before Marquette Club in Chicago.

Des Moines, Ia., Oct. 21.—Senator A. B. Cummins said that he had accepted an invitation to speak before the Marquette club at Chicago on Nov. 6, at which time he will answer Speaker Cannon's recent attack upon the progressives and give his idea of what the progressives should do in the next congress and the following campaign.

Lewiston, Pa., Oct. 16.—John Bird was accidentally killed by Melvin Melroy, who shot at a squirrel. Stray shots entered Bird's heart.

Coats Suits

"Michael's"

The first two words should never be thought of except in connection with "Michael's", for "Michael's" garments are the representatives of the best tailoring that this country affords. This implies style and fit. The prices are more than reasonable. We should add that our line is an unusually large one.

W. H. Michael Co.

APPROACHING TARIFF WAR WITH CANADA

United States on Verge of Trouble With Neighbor.

Washington, Oct. 21.—There are reasons for believing that the United States is approaching a tariff war with Canada.

The daily newspapers of that country, from Vancouver and Victoria to Quebec, are pronounced on the subject, and are engaged in the work of stirring up a feeling of retaliation. Parliament will meet late in the winter, when the discussion will be centered at Ottawa, and it is the belief of Washington that steps will then be taken, although of just what character is not known at this time, to "get even" with the United States for certain provisions contained in Section 2 of the new Payne tariff law.

Public men here say that it will be unfortunate for the United States if Canada should invite a tariff war, and yet they also say that it is difficult to see how Canada can do otherwise, in view of all the facts.

Under the provisions of Section 2, above referred to, duties on all goods from Canada must go up 25 per cent on the first day of April, 1910, unless Canada shall place the United States on the same footing with Great Britain as to trade in that country.

In case President Taft should be advised by the tariff board which he has named that there has been no "undue discrimination" by Canada against this country, he may except Canada from the maximum features of the new law.

In the face of the plain provisions of the law, however, there is grave doubt as to whether the tariff board will be able so to advise him, and so it happens that the situation is being viewed with a good deal of uneasiness by people in this city.

Canada, as a part of the British empire, naturally favors England in its tariffs, and has done so for years. The Payne law seems to attempt to force Canada into refusing to continue this British preferential, and is thus what public men here call an unwarranted interference with Canadian policy.

The United States, it is pointed out, claims the right to make such trade arrangements as it sees fit with Porto Rico, the Philippines and the canal zone. When Canada claims a similar right as to Great Britain the new tariff law says that its merchandise shall be subject to American maximum rates if offered for import. This is the inconsistency in the new law which threatens trouble, and trouble that may easily prove very costly.

WOOD PULP ON FREE LIST

Only Solution to Impending Trade War With Canada.

Chicago, Oct. 21.—The placing of wood pulp on the tariff free list is the only solution to the impending trade war between the United States and Canada, caused by the new print paper and wood pulp tariff incorporated in the recent tariff bill.

The foregoing is the belief of Congressman James R. Mann and of John Norris, chairman of the standing committee on print paper of the American Newspaper Publishers' association, as expressed in addresses before the Inland Daily Press association.

Following the addresses the association and the Illinois Daily News-per Publishers' association, two of the strongest organizations of their kind in the Middle West, voiced the most emphatic protest that has yet been made against the impending paper tariff and indorsed a letter of appeal to President Taft, asking that a new investigation be made and the report of the Mann committee be adopted.

Congressman Mann declared that only the reduction of the tariff or the entire limitation of the duty was all that could prevent disastrous trade war with Canada.

Mr. Norris stated emphatically that he believed that only a free schedule for print paper and pulp now would be accepted by the Canadians.

Congressman Mann gave a careful review of the investigation made by his committee while the tariff bill was pending in the congress and a history of the print paper and wood pulp provision from its inception.

IRELAND MAY GET RED HAT

St. Paul Archbishop May Become a Cardinal.

Rome, Oct. 21.—While the pope only recently seemed determined not to have a consistory until 1910, it is now suddenly announced that one will be held about the middle of December and another next spring.

Regarding the appointment of a new American cardinal, Archbishop Farley of New York, Archbishop Ireland of St. Paul and Archbishop O'Connell of Boston are considered the most likely candidates.

It is reported also that an American cardinal may be named as a member of the curia, and therefore will live in Rome.

MINNEAPOLIS MILLS BUSY

Working Night and Day to Meet Demand for Flour.

Minneapolis, Oct. 21.—Every shipping record in the milling history of Minneapolis was broken when the railroads took out 556 cars containing 110,560 barrels of flour in one day.

Solid trains of flour were moved out by most of the roads. If the cars could have been linked end to end, they would have made a train more than three miles long.

The mills have all been in operation for the past ten days, and the industry is active beyond precedent. Running day and night and Sunday, to meet the demand, they are producing flour in enormous quantity.

FARM, HOME AND GARDEN

Well ventilated stables, says the Minnesota Dairyman, are the best protection against tuberculosis. If a cow has plenty of fresh air and sunshine, and at the same time, is kept comfortably warm, she is much less susceptible to disease, and much more likely to throw off contagion. On the other hand, if a number of cows are kept in a dark, unsanitary barn, if one of the herd catches a disease, it is almost sure to run through the entire herd.

Have you any cows in your herd

This was Judge Warner's busy day in municipal court and he disposed of three cases in short order and continued the fourth for one week.

Frank Thienes, who conducts a saloon in the Fitzer block, was arraigned on a charge of selling liquor to a minor. The complaint alleges that he sold one John Shay, a minor child under 16 years of age, one gallon of beer. T. C. Blewitt appeared for Mr. Thienes and the case was continued for one week, the defendant being released on his personal bond in the amount of $50. The police say that there has been a custom of families sending youngsters after beer for family use, and that the youngsters take advantage of it to get liquor for themselves and the authorities have determined to enforce the law strictly in the matter.

Virgil Merrick was given his choice of paying $11 or spending ten days in jail on a charge of stealing one bushel of coal from John Larson. He paid. John Johnson paid $6 for being drunk on the street and Chas. Benson contributed the same amount for being disorderly.

H. E. Kemp paid $10 fine and costs this afternoon on a charge of assault on Richard Bush, brought by J. W. Bush, the father of the lad. Kemp plead guilty.

SEES A DIRIGIBLE BALLOON

Pope Admires Evolutions of Italian Aerial Craft.

Rome, Oct. 21.—In thirty minutes one of the Italian military dirigible balloons came from Piacenza to Rome, nineteen miles. The dirigible executed evolutions over the city, and passing over the gardens of the vatican was seen by the pope, who was taking his daily walk.

The pontiff stopped to watch and admire the evolutions. The dirigible flew so low that its occupants could be clearly distinguished.

TRACK LAYING IS PROGRESSING

The Steel Crew on the Soo-Cuyuna
Line is Pushing Work and Side
Tracks are being Laid

WILL BE IN AITKIN NOV. 15th

Kennedy Mine at Cuyuna to Have an Output of 500,000 Tons of Ore Per Year

The steel crew on the new Soo-Cuyuna line from Moose Lake this way have reached the station of Finland, the first station out from Moose Lake, and at that place, as at all other stations, a passing track of three quarters of a mile will be laid.

The grading contractors are now safely out of the way and Engineer Huss says he sees no obstacle to reaching Ironhub, midway between Aitkin and Cuyuna, by Nov. 15th. This is a splendid record of railroad building as the grading work was not started out of Moose Lake until July 15th and to get the steel into Ironhub Nov. 15th will consume but four months.

In speaking of the volume of business in sight Mr. Huss said that the Rogers-Brown people alone were waiting with 250 tons of mining machinery to be hauled into Cuyuna. Superintendent Kruse informs him that this one mine will have an output of 500,000 tons a year, which will make about 100 cars a day during the shipping season. The mine will work the year round but during the closed season of navigation they will accumulate a stock pile as they are doing now. Many other properties will be opened up next season and in anticipation of the heavy hauling to be done, the company has located stations about every six miles and has 3,000 feet of yards for passing track length at every station.—Aitkin Age.

About eight out of ten men wear the three quarter length OVERCOAT. They prefer it, as the style changes but little from season to season, and it looks as well on the tall man or the short man as on the normal.

It's an Ideal Coat

The cut of this COAT this season is a trifle longer than usual with a loose or box effect at the back. The collars and lapels are wider and longer. Kerseys in black and Oxford mixtures are the favorite fabrics. We want men who enjoy a sensible OVERCOAT, to see these three quarter length beauties. Silk lined if you prefer.

W. C. T. U. Convention.

Omaha, Oct. 21.—Arrangements have been completed for the thirty-sixth annual convention of the National Women's Christian Temperance union that opens at the Omaha Auditorium Friday, continuing seven days. The convention proper will be opened at 9:30 a. m., Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens of Portland, Me., delivering her annual address.

Of Interest To Women:

To such women as are not seriously out of health, but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions which seriously tax their strength, as well as to nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nerve. By its timely use, much serious sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife, would it be believed, seldom have to be employed if this most valuable woman's remedy were resorted to in good time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Bear in mind, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a MEDICINE OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. In this connection it may not be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through druggists, all the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that top as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take as candy.

DAUGHTERS ON WITNESS STAND

Throw Little Light on Murder of Their Father.

ON NIGHT BEFORE THE CRIME

Movements of Mrs. Arbogast Could Not Be Explained by Two of Her Children—Idea Arbogast Fails to Give Direct Answers to Questions Dealing With the Vital Points of the Case—Courtroom Is Crowded.

St. Paul, Oct. 21.—With a full jury in the box the trial of Mrs. Arbogast for the murder of her husband was begun in earnest after the noon recess. Judge Grier M. Orr was on the bench promptly and the attorneys were on hand. The courtroom was crowded to the doors. There were many women and girls in the audience.

The movements of Mrs. Mina Arbogast the night before her husband was found murdered could not be explained by her two daughters on the witness stand.

The girls, Ida and Minnie, swore that they retired about 9:30 o'clock on the night their father was killed, but had seen nothing of their mother from the time they entered the house to go upstairs to bed until they heard her screaming about 4 o'clock in the morning of May 13.

The Arbogast girls who took the witness stand are well up into young womanhood. Ida said she is twenty-two years old and Minnie is past eighteen. They had been out of doors early in the evening and upon returning went directly to their room in the front of the house on the second floor.

In answer to a question by County Attorney Richard D. O'Brien, Ida Arbogast said she went to bed without seeing her mother, and Minnie stated that she did not usually retire without saying good night, but she did it that night. In explanation the younger daughter said that she thought her mother was in the dining room when she came in, and she did not want to disturb the company.

Ida, who found her mother in the room with her dying father, described some of the incidents in the burning room, but failed to give direct answers in some of the most vital points that required elucidation.

Minnie Arbogast knew even less than her older sister and remembered nothing of the details of her mother's condition after Ida had brought her downstairs from the burning room. It was only a few minutes after 4 o'clock in the morning then, but none of the girls would state positively whether it was yet daylight. They had run into the street to give the alarm, according to their statements, and did not know what occurred afterwards.

English Publisher Says Americans Are a Nation of Dreamers, but With a Great Future—Believes We Should Produce Great Musical Composers.

"I have observed that the difference between the Americans and the English is that the former are all optimists and the latter are all pessimists," said Lord Northcliffe, who controls the London Times and sixty or more other foreign publications, on his recent visit to Chicago. Everything Lord Northcliffe saw was a target for his comment. For America he sees a great future.

"Your whole nation, the members of which have been described to me as frenzied money grabbers," he said, "I find to be dreamers—a whole nation of dreamers."

"Do you know, it is ludicrous to me to look at some of your papers and see how old fashioned they are. Look at the American papers today, all discussing whether there should be an income tax or not, what wages women should receive and all these old labor problems that we buried years ago. You are a whole decade behind Europe. Do you people realize that?"

America Like a Big Boy.

"Why, I look on America as I would look on some young boy just off from college or as I would on a young couple newly married. The country delights me. I am enthusiastic over it. You have a great future, but your troubles are all ahead."

"You have one tremendous figure here. I mean your late and future President Theodore Roosevelt. He is a splendid man. One nation does not produce more than two or three men like that."

"Do you believe that he will again be president of the United States?"

"Why can I doubt it? Everywhere I have been the people have talked Roosevelt to me. You worship him. There is nothing like it in Europe, such hero worship. And he deserves it too. He is a tremendous figure."

"Do you believe he will be ranked among the great statesmen of the world?"

"Assuredly I do. We are still close to him, however, and it is hard to tell. Certainly we have no one like him in Europe today."

Speaking of the difference between the English and the American temperament, he said:

"The Englishman is a born pessimist. He is never content with surface indications; he is always looking beneath to find something rotten, something warping, something wrong; he is never sure that he is prosperous, no matter how rich he is."

"You Americans, on the other hand, are radical optimists. A glance at the surface satisfies you. Every one of you believes that America is the greatest country in the world and that Americans are the greatest people. You are taken up with dreams of a great future."

Should Produce Great Composer.

"And I believe that the future of America is great. You should produce the next great musical composer here. I do not know that you will, but you should, for you have all the elements—a Teutonic strain, a Slavonic strain and a fine enthusiasm everywhere. The two greatest artists of recent years were Americans, Whistler and Sargent. And your standards in the higher fields of culture are growing yearly."

After visiting the University of Chicago Lord Northcliffe said: "John D. Rockefeller could make no better use of his vast wealth than the founding of your wonderful university. You should appreciate your rich men—for the wise use of their millions."

He was asked his opinion of J. Pierpont Morgan.

"J. Pierpont Morgan?" he replied. "Why, if he had lived in the middle ages he would have been another Lorenzo de' Medici—another Lorenzo the Magnificent."

Lord Northcliffe's High Tribute to Our Temperament.

"AMERICA LIKE A BIG BOY."

Man and Two Women Murdered in Kansas.

Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 21.—Three murders were uncovered as the result of a search instituted when Rose McMahon, twenty-seven years old, did not return from the home of her married sister, Mrs. Margaret Van Royer, with whom she had been visiting since Tuesday night. The parents investigated. In the kitchen of the Van Royer home both women were found murdered. Both had been killed by shooting.

The coroner was notified that the body of Van Royer, the husband, had been found buried under a pile of leaves not far from the house in which the bodies of the two women were found.

The Van Royers had recently sold the farm on which they were living. It is supposed the triple murder was done by robbers who sought, and perhaps succeeded, in getting the proceeds from the sale of the farm.

COSTLY FIRE AT DAYTON, O.

Property Valued at Three Hundred Thousand Dollars Destroyed.

Dayton, O., Oct. 21.—Fire in the manufacturing section of this city caused damage estimated at over $300,000. The fire originated in the huge plant of the Dayton Computing Scales company. The blaze, fanned by a high wind, spread to the plants of the Cooper Medicine company and the Pasteur-Chamberlain Filter company. The fire is thought to be under control, but is still burning fiercely.

GERMANS BUY COAL LANDS

Ten Millions Said to Have Been Paid for Canadian Deposits.

Calgary, Alta., Oct. 20.—A deal has been put through here by which a company of German capitalists has secured possession of the Kanaskis coal fields, near Banff, and the Brazeau coal fields in the neighborhood of Yellow Head Pass. The price is said to be about $10,000,000.

The supply of steam coal in both fields is regarded as practically inexhaustible and will probably form the chief source of supply for the Grand Trunk Pacific, as well as a partial source of supply for the Canadian Northern.

The Canadian Northern is understood to be heavily interested with the Germans in the new venture.

Iowa Potato Crop Damaged.

Plymouth, Ia., Oct. 21.—From 10 to 33½ per cent of a loss is estimated here to the potato crop from the effects of the freeze of last week, which caught thousands of bushels still in the field. The harvest of the crop, which is a large one in this section of Iowa, has begun in earnest, and the discovery of the damage from frost has been made.

NATION OF OPTIMISTS

Lord Northcliffe's High Tribute to Our Temperament.

"AMERICA LIKE A BIG BOY."

English Publisher Says Americans Are a Nation of Dreamers, but With a Great Future—Believes We Should Produce Great Musical Composers.

"I have observed that the difference between the Americans and the English is that the former are all optimists and the latter are all pessimists," said Lord Northcliffe, who controls the London Times and sixty or more other foreign publications, on his recent visit to Chicago. Everything Lord Northcliffe saw was a target for his comment. For America he sees a great future.

"Your whole nation, the members of which have been described to me as frenzied money grabbers," he said, "I find to be dreamers—a whole nation of dreamers."

"Do you know, it is ludicrous to me to look at some of your papers and see how old fashioned they are. Look at the American papers today, all discussing whether there should be an income tax or not, what wages women should receive and all these old labor problems that we buried years ago. You are a whole decade behind Europe. Do you people realize that?"

America Like a Big Boy.

"Why, I look on America as I would look on some young boy just off from college or as I would on a young couple newly married. The country delights me. I am enthusiastic over it. You have a great future, but your troubles are all ahead."

"You have one tremendous figure here. I mean your late and future President Theodore Roosevelt. He is a splendid man. One nation does not produce more than two or three men like that."

"Do you believe that he will again be president of the United States?"

"Why can I doubt it? Everywhere I have been the people have talked Roosevelt to me. You worship him. There is nothing like it in Europe, such hero worship. And he deserves it too. He is a tremendous figure."

"Do you believe he will be ranked among the great statesmen of the world?"

"Assuredly I do. We are still close to him, however, and it is hard to tell. Certainly we have no one like him in Europe today."

Speaking of the difference between the English and the American temperament, he said:

"The Englishman is a born pessimist. He is never content with surface indications; he is always looking beneath to find something rotten, something warping, something wrong; he is never sure that he is prosperous, no matter how rich he is."

"You Americans, on the other hand, are radical optimists. A glance at the surface satisfies you. Every one of you believes that America is the greatest country in the world and that Americans are the greatest people. You are taken up with dreams of a great future."

Should Produce Great Composer.

"And I believe that the future of America is great. You should produce the next great musical composer here. I do not know that you will, but you should, for you have all the elements—a Teutonic strain, a Slavonic strain and a fine enthusiasm everywhere. The two greatest artists of recent years were Americans, Whistler and Sargent. And your standards in the higher fields of culture are growing yearly."

After visiting the University of Chicago Lord Northcliffe said: "John D. Rockefeller could make no better use of his vast wealth than the founding of your wonderful university. You should appreciate your rich men—for the wise use of their millions."

He was asked his opinion of J. Pierpont Morgan.

"J. Pierpont Morgan?" he replied. "Why, if he had lived in the middle ages he would have been another Lorenzo de' Medici—another Lorenzo the Magnificent."

MEETS A HORRIBLE DEATH

Little Girl Whirled to Death by a Revolving Shaft.

Sanborn, N. D., Oct. 21.—The seven-year-old daughter of L. B. Sutton, a painter, met a terrible death here by being whirled around a revolving shaft in the course of making changes at the elevator the shaft was left about three feet from the ground, and the little girl and a companion were riding it.

The wind blew her skirt about the shaft when it came her turn to ride, and the rapidly revolving piece of steel beat her against the ground. She died about ten hours after the accident.

Nerves at High Tension

Slight extra strain means collapse—Restoration obtained by using DR. A. W. CHASE'S NERVE PILLS

The successful men and women are often of the high-strung nervous type—keen and active—but with too little reserve force.

A little extra worry and anxiety and snap goes the nervous system. Weeks and months are often required before energy and vigor are regained.

Rest helps, so does fresh air and exercise, but the blood must also be made rich and red by use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills.

Mrs. P. G. Haines, Rossburg, Oregon, states: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills have done me a great deal of good in building up the nervous system. For over twenty years I suffered with my nerves, and doctored with several doctors. I can say that I have received more benefit from these pills than from all other medicines taken. I have gained nine pounds in weight."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills, 50 cts. a box, all dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., on every box.
